October 2008

From the President:

Hello from sunny Southern California.

The September meeting was an inspiring start to our new year. Jennifer Gilbert's talk and slide show on Crazy Quilting was so enjoyable and truly inspired those of us who were lucky enough to take Marianne's crazy quilting workshop on Saturday, which, by the way was fantastic!

Enjoy Vivian Sayre this month. She gives a great talk loaded with many historical tidbits.

See you at show set-up and at the show
Jane Harris

Programs

This month we are lucky to have Vivien Sayre as our guest speaker. Vivien visited with us last spring to appraise quilts for us and this time she will be showing us antique quilts from her collection.

Come and see some real beauties at our October meeting.

Membership

Be sure to renew your membership to enjoy all of the fun of the October Quilt show.

It's a new season of fabulous quilting and time to renew your Wayside Quilt Guild membership. Please fill out a membership form and submit it to me along with your annual dues of $25. Or, you can send it in the mail to me before the October meeting (this will make it a little easier). Member cards and the updated Wayside Quilters directory will be handed out at a later meeting.

Quilt Show

Dear Wayside Quilters,

We are so pleased with the turnout of entries to our quilt show, and look forward to seeing all of your beautiful work hanging proudly!

However, we are still in desperate need of volunteers to cover many shifts and duties over the weekend. The quilt show is an "all hands on deck" project that the guild takes on collectively and we need help from every member. As you know, we stipulate that we need three hours of volunteer time if you are submitting a quilt -- but even if you are not showing a quilt this time around, we need you. The show is the most significant fund-raiser we hold, and proceeds benefit our charity efforts and guild projects -- these things benefit us all. Therefore, we need everyone's help.

Please complete an online volunteer registration form today. If you do not have access to the Internet, call Marianne or Kristine and we will complete one for you or contact Volunteer Coordinator Barb McCarty directly at (617) 563 0552 or Barbara.Mccarty@fmr.com. Questions can be directed to Marianne, Kristine or Barb.

Thank you all,

Marianne Hatton and Kristine Diederich, Quilt Show co-chairs

Workshops

On Tuesday, November 11th, we will have an all-day workshop on Color Theory with Gwyned Trefethen. Here is how she describes her workshop: "In Color Theory 101, students will develop a comfort level with color through hands on exercises using fabric scraps, colored pencils and construction paper. Students of all abilities from beginner to seasoned are encouraged to sign up. No sewing required."

It sounds like fun! The cost for this workshop will be $25 for Wayside Guild members and $35 for non-members. Wow! You can sign up by contacting Laura Lane: pete.lane@comcast.net or at (508)480-8259. You can learn more about Gwyned at the following websites:

New England Quilt Museum News

Art Quilt Exhibition by New York City's Fiber Artists Explores Urban Themes

New England Quilt Museum is pleased to announce its next exhibition entitled "Metro Textural" celebrating themes of New York City's urban life with fabric and texture, on display from August 28 - November 2nd, 2008.

"Metro Textural" is the latest group exhibition featuring twenty-one quilts with sixteen additional pieces for this exhibit by members of the Manhattan Quilters Guild, an eclectic group of professional fiber artists who meet in New York City. The rules were relatively simple: Create a series of quilted artwork that relates somehow to ideas of texture and the city. This exhibition celebrates the visual feast of New York City, from serendipitous juxtapositions of signage and advertisements to the surface ornamentation of historic buildings. The works created specifically for this exhibition include vibrant abstractions, architectural details, witty interpretations of the grid, and the visual rhythm of New York voices. Techniques range from scintillating piecework and illusionistic appliqué to painting and photo transfer. Diversity in the urban scene is a common thread that unifies the quilts in "Metro Textural," which tours through 2009. A color catalog of this exhibit is available in our gift shop.

On view in two of our permanent collection galleries are eight additional quilts from the permanent collection of the New England Quilt Museum. These traditional and contemporary quilts dating from 1853 to 2005 were either made in New York or created about New York.

Support for this exhibition is provided in part by Marcus Brothers Fabrics and Demoulas Foundation.

Regular museum hours are 10 AM to 4 PM Tuesday through Saturday (year round) and Sundays 12 to 4 PM (May through December only). Admission is $5 for adults, $4 for students/seniors. Museum members are admitted free. Handicapped parking is available. Guided group tours, catered luncheons, and group rates available with reservations.

Library

Borrowing books

One of the benefits of guild membership is the availability of an array of quilting books for borrowing. There's a list of these books linked to the guild's web-site. If you find a book you'd like on this list, e-mail or phone me and I'll bring it to the next meeting. I'll also bring a selection of books to each meeting for members to look through.

Donating books

We could accession a limited number of new books (storage space is a consideration). If you have a relatively new book, published within the last four or five years, that you'd like to donate to the library, I'd be willing to process it and add it to the library's list for sharing. Please write your name in the book so that we could return it to you should the guild ever vote the library out of existence.
